FIFTH ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION.

Five years ago, when Auburn was just beginning the wonderful period of development it is now enjoying, Messers L. and M. Frank, foreseeing the needs of the people about to take up this residence in our midst opened their fine department store.

That their confidence was not misplaced has been demonstrated in successful business they have developed.

As a reward to the people who have made this success possible, and to show that the patronage is appreciated Frank's Department Store is this week holding a great Anniversary Sale and will give their customers values in merchandise never heard of before.

We join with many of the satisfied patrons of this store in wishing for it continued and greater success.

On May 31st, Miss Charlotte Wilson of 7324 Princeton Avenue entertained a number of her friends. All present found Miss Wilson a very good entertainer and hostess.

On Monday, June 12th, at 8 p. m., there will be a public meeting in Hamilton Park Assembly Hall for the discussion of the Gas question, now before the City Council. Experts will speak and demonstrations given. All gas consumers are urged to be present. Our City is far behind all other cities in the manufacture of gas.

THEY TELL US THAT---

We are sorry to announce that we have lost Mr. Harris' family of 7810 Peoria street. They have moved to Jackson Highlands and will be greatly missed.

Bring your watch and jewelry repairing to A. L. Bloomquist, 7824 S. Halsted, where the most careful attention to repairing and highest class of workmanship is assured. Prices very reasonable. Fine line of Wedding presents at lowest prices.

Miss Regina Sullivan of 7815 Morgan street is at home from a visit in the country, and is greatly improved.

Mothers, if you have a little girl and wish to surprise Daddy take her to Room 202-3 White Block, 79th and Halsted Sts., they will bobb her hair and make her look like an Angel. Charge 25c; 35c on Saturday.

Mrs. J. Wane of 7815 Morgan street has been entertaining friends from Sonora, Mexico.

Meet me at the Sample Shop, 7806 Halsted St. I want to get a hat and I always get the best value there.

The Schawaine Camp Fire Girls will give a party and dance on Saturday evening June 17th at Hamilton Park.

Miss Fanchon Watt of 6715 Perry Avenue will give a Pupils Recital on Friday, June 9th, in North club room of Hamilton Park Field house.

What would you think of an optometrist who has had the experience of fitting over 20,000 people with glasses? Ask your friends about "Budney" Optical work, it speaks for itself. "Budney," 7902 Halsted St.

"Hello, where are you going?"
"I am going to the Sample Shop, 7806 Halsted St., to get a middy blouse and wash skirt and while we're over there we'll look at their pretty summer dresses. We can do better at the Sample Shop than anywhere else.

Miss Lenore Wood of 7047 Eggleston Avenue, will give a Pupils Recital on Sunday afternon, June 18th, at Hamilton Park.

Frank Parker of N. Y., has prepared an article on Hair and Hair Troubles, appearing in the Examiner, each Sunday. If you find your hair needs treatment, call on Octavia M. & Hermine I. Neben, Suite 202-3 White Block, 79th and Halsted Sts. They are graduates of the Parker method and will examine your hair free of charge. Charge $1 for treatment

The Auburn Park Catholic Women's Club will hold a card party June 6, at the Amicus club house.

Come over to the Sample Shop, 7806 Halsted St., with me, I saw some pretty waists there, just what I wanted, and I am going to get one."

Auburn, the wise buyer's trading place.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Carrier celebrated their Twentieth Wedding Anniversary on May 17th, 1916. They made it a Family Reunion.

Dinner was served at 8:30 p. m., of which forty five persons partook. They received many beautiful and costly presents of china.

All present enjoyed a very pleasant evening, as Mr. and Mrs. Carrier are very sociable entertainers.

LOOP OUTDONE BY LOCAL DEALER.

Several loop stores recently made considerable noise about a special sale of Champion Spark Plugs but the Champion Garage at 7935 Halsted St., has been doing the same thing for several weeks; that is selling the Champion Spark Plug, 75c value at 45c, and if you have not taken advantage of their offer, do so next Saturday. It will pay you to keep an eye on the many bargain offers this live Auburn dealer is making.

A Community Barbecue will be held in Hamilton Park Assembly Hall at 6:15 on Tuesday, June 13th. Judge John Barton Payne, doner of the mural decorations in the lobby of the Field house, will be the honored guest. The essential purpose of this banquet is that of bringing together as large and representative group of those interested in the social and civic welfare of the community.

Mr. and Mrs. Krug, of 7301 Princeton Avenue, gave a party in honor of their daughter, Rose, on May 20th. Many were present and all had a very nice time.

Both adult and children's Civic Music Choruses took part in the Annual May Music Festival, gvien on Sunday, June 4th. This was the 2nd city-wide Civic Festival. The Adult Chorus of Hamilton Park distinguished itself by giving "Sunrise" which we understand to be rather difficult to render.

On Wednesday, June 14th, at 8 p. m., at Hamilton Park there will be a flag program, given by group of children from the Public Schools and Hamilton Park Women's Gymnasium, under the direction of Capt. C. R. Lewis, of the American Flag Day Association. The public is invited.

WHY?

Why do we ride so rough o'er the hearts
Of those we love the best?
How do we dare to put their love for us
To such an acid test?

Far better it were to fan the flame
Of love we know is true,
Than sue for favor in foreign fields
And foster friendships new

Sad.

Old oaken bucket, you are barred, from you we dare not drink,
Though once we praised you in poetic
terms,
But modern hygiene has prevailed and we are taught to think
You are a deadly carrier of germs.

Considerate.

"We stand on our rights," announced the spokesman of the delegation of citizens that had called on the street railroad magnate to demand better street car service and sitting room.

"Well," replied the magnate, "you have my permission to stand on your lefts for awhile."

Fact.

It's hard to look
Ahead, you'll find,
When all your debts
Are far behind.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis have returned from a two weeks' trip through the South.

Miss Jane Kelley of Brownsville has just returned home after a visit of two weeks with her cousin, Mae Powers, 7822 Champlain avenue, where she had a very lovely time. She met several new friends and every one said they would be glad to see her soon again.

PRECIOUS PETROLEUM.

It Is a Priceless Resource That Can Never Be Replaced.

"How much petroleum there is in the United States no one knows," writes Franklin K. Lane in an article on "Economic Preparedness," published in the Scientific American. But at the present rate of consumption—265,000,000 barrels a year—it will soon be exhausted, for the geological survey's maximum estimate is 23,000,000,000 barrels.

"Whatever the supply," says Mr. Lane, "it should not be allowed in its crude state to compete with coal as fuel. Petroleum is a priceless resource, for it can never be replaced. Trees can be grown again on the soil from which they have been taken. But how can petroleum be produced? It has taken ages for nature to distill it in her subterranean laboratory. We do not even know her process. We may find a substitute for it, but we have not yet.

"It is practically the one lubricant of the world today. Not a railroad wheel turns without its way being smoothed by it. We can make light and heat by hydroelectric power, but the great turbines move on bearings that are smothered in petroleum. From it we get the quick exploding gas which is to the motor and the airship what air is to the human body. To industry, agriculture, commerce and the pleasures of life petroleum is now essential."

Our Daily Special.

What this country needs is fewer orators and more listeners.

A FLOATING FORTUNE.

The Right Kind of Whale Is Heavily Freighted With Wealth.

First let us dispel the popular idea that a whale is a fish. It is not a fish, but an animal. It feeds its young with milk. And even though it lives in the water it can be drowned. A fish extracts oxygen from the water and takes it through its gills. But the whale has to rise to the surface and get a supply of oxygen from the air. When it does this it spouts water to make room for air, and the fishermen say, "There she blows!"

A whale has a large, flat tail, about eighteen feet across. Every fish has an upright tail. That is because fish need their tails only to act as rudders. But a whale when he needs oxygen, has to beat down the water and get to the surface in bounds. That's the reason his tail is flat.

The baleen, or whalebone whale, carries all the whalebone in his mouth. It hangs down from his upper jaw in a vast network. He eats the smallest sort of jellyfish, etc. Having no teeth, he swims right into a shoal of things that form his food, and the network of whalebone acts as a huge fishing net. Whalebone is worth $10,000 a ton, and one whale may carry one and a half tons of it. Besides whalebone, we get tons of oil from the whale. It is used for ointments and very fine candles. And from a certain species of whale we get ambergris, which is worth from $10 to $30 an ounce. The whale is a floating fortune.—Milwaukee Sentinel.

Dad's Ambition.

The ambition of every father is that his son shall have an easier time than he has had.—Philadelphia Ledger.

Curious Church Architecture.

The parish church of Ormskirk, in Lancashire, England, has a tower and a spire side by side. The tower is built over the porch at the west end, and the spire is placed as closely as possible to it. The origin of this architectural freak has not been ascertained, but there is a tradition to the effect that when Orme, the Saxon pirate from whom the town derives its name, decided to construct a kirk, or church, as an expiatory offering for his evil deeds his two daughters quarreled over the design for the structure. One determined to have a tower; the other was equally resolved to have a steeple. As neither of them would give way the pirate chief acceded to both their wishes, and the curious may see the tower and spire still keeping watch side by side on the surrounding country.

Origin of the Hackney.

The hackney horse has given quite a number of useful words to the language. He and his name came from Normandy originally—haquenee, really a corruption of the Latin for horse—and he was a riding horse. Being commonly hired out, the name came to be associated with hiring and in course of time also with drudgery. Today there are far more hackney carriages, within the meaning of the act, without horses than with. A literary hack is another form of the same name, and hackneyed is an obvious derivation from a common source. — London Chronicle.

When the Window Sticks.

Take each window cord in hand at the same time and pull them out until the weights are up at the top. Let go suddenly and they will drop in place with sufficient force to start the window open, when no amount of pushing will do it.

Cheer Up!

"Mankind has not improved in 5,000 years," growled the pessimist.

"But the plumbing has," replied the optimist.

Toot!

The man who plays the flute is tight,
He didn't come, the mean galoot!
But we'll have music here tonight,
We'll let him substitute his flute.

Extremes.

"These women seem to go to extremes," remarked the old bachelor.

"They certainly do," agreed the old benedict. "Why, they get headaches from wearing tight shoes."

Betcha!

"A silent place this world would be,
And quiet sure would reign," said Meek.
"We'd all be better off if we Would just think twice before we speak."

Bringing the Tariff Question Up Again.

UNDERWOOD-LAW.

Tomorrow (Saturday) afternoon in Dallas there will be solemnized the marriage of Mr. Jarrett Law of Oklahoma City and Miss Mabel Underwood of Dallas.—Temple (Tex.) Telegram.

Correct.

Men are a lot like clocks, my son,
Some keep good time, I know,
But some are too fast as they run,
And some are much too slow.

When A Nurse is Needed

One can be secured on short notice by Telephoning Normal 3298. The Normal Nurses' Registry sent nurses on a very large number of cases during 1915 and in practically every instance complete satisfaction was expressed by those into whose homes the nurses were sent. On our register are some of the most proficient graduate nurses in the city, under-graduates who have nearly completed their training, and practical nurses who go into a home where there is sickness and give the benefit of their years of experience in practical nursing. If you need a nurse telephone us. State the amount you can afford to pay and a nurse will be sent to you within a few hours. : : : :

Cheer Up!

Let smiling be your mission,
Grin, and do not be afraid,
For a sunny disposition
Casts old trouble in the shade.

The Wise Fool.

"It does not cost anything to be polite," observed the sage.

"It does when you are polite enough to applaud a bad singer and have to stand for an encore," corrected the fool.

Good Boy!

I know a brave one legged man,
And he is hard to beat;
He always does the best he can
To get there with both feet.

Huh!

"I am dressed and out of my house by 5 o'clock every morning," bragged Smith.

"What is the idea?" asked Jones.

"What is the idea of what?" exclaimed Smith.

"What is the idea of being on the street at 5 in the morning?" asked Jones. "The saloons do not open until 6."

Difficult.

The most difficult feat to perform is to catch a flea while wearing boxing gloves.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

English Injustice.

An Australian tourist traveling in the west of Ireland asked an old woman how far it was to the nearest town. She sadly looked at him, then sighed and said:

"It was five nice miles two years ago, but some English brute came over with chains and made it seven, and our hearts are broke walking it ever since. Bad luck to them!"

And she disappeared into the house, leaving him there.—Illustrated Bits.

Luke McLuke Says:

Always try to remember that when you are laughing at a man behind his back there are a lot of men behind your back who are laughing at you.

The reason why father knows that Sherman was right when he remarked that "war is hell" is because father has to use safety pins to fasten the holes in the toes of his socks together while mother is at her club knitting feet warmers for the men in the trenches.

Every now and then in your wanderings you run into a man who gives you the impression that he is wearing long stockings and a gauze undershirt with baby ribbon in it.

A pimply princess with a frog face knows that every man in town has designs upon her if you will let her tell it, but a pretty girl keeps her mouth shut because she is ashamed to admit that about 800 men try to flirt with her every day.

If a man stays around the house all the time his wife has no use for him, and if he stays away from the house all the time she is as mad as a wet hen.

The man who can't take a joke is mighty quick to take offense.

Why is a girl with pretty little pink ears expected to cover them up with her hair and hide them? And why is the man who has a pair of airship planes growing on the sides of his face expected to keep his hair cut short so as to exaggerate nature's generosity?

A man may be a good judge of other things, but it isn't safe to let him make a ruling in the matter of his own importance.

A man will get mad if you call him a bleary eyed monkey, and yet he will feel real proud if you tell him that his new baby looks just like him.

What's the use? If father goes out at night mother will nag him when he gets back because he doesn't take her out somewhere like other husbands take their wives. And if father stays home at night and offers to take her out somewhere mother will nag him because she doesn't want to go out and will nag him because she hasn't a lot of nice clothes to wear like other men's wives have

The Connection.

Gabe—Why do they say that the ghost walks on pay day? Steve—Because that's the day our spirits rise.

A Sad Fact.

What we need in this sad world is not greater equality of opportunity, but a more stable equilibrium in labor. We either have nothing at all to do and starve to death, or have too much to do and work ourselves to death, until the chief aim of man would seem to be merely to shuffle off this mortal coil. —Judge.

Praise With a Purpose.

"I heard Mr. Subbubs speaking most beautifully of his wife to another lady on the train just now. Rather unusual in a man these days."

"Not under the circumstances. That was a new cook he was escorting out." Louisville Courier-Journal.

The heart of a loving woman is a golden sanctuary where often there reigns an idol of clay.—Limarae.

Flowers.

To be consistent with the prevailing quaintness of the styles of the middle nineteenth century a number of artificial flowers have appeared on frocks and suits as trimming in one case and to give a bright color note in the other. A high degree of art has been reached in the manufacture of these flowers, and one's natural prejudice to that which is artificial is somewhat removed by their close resemblance to the real growing blossoms.

The boutonnieres for wear with the tailored suits most often consist of a single flower surrounded by smaller ones rather stiffly arranged. This one flower may be a rose, a poppy, a gardenia or a carnation. Whatever the flower, the color is more or less dull. Dull roses, gray forgetmenots and plenty of foliage make these small boutonnieres small pastels of art.
